

in preceding years. A novel feature however was the concert given by the College band on the grounds of the Benedictine Convent, to the great enjoyment of the good Sisters and in honor of their holy Patroness.

On the 10 inst. many of us went to cast our vote either for the maintenance of the County seat in Tecumseh or its transfer to Shawnee. The latter town won the victory.

On the 12 inst. Father Maurus celebrated Holy Mass in Konawa for the benefit of Catholics living in that vicinity. Only once before was mass offered up in Konawa, namely last Easter Sunday.

On the 13th inst. a Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of our late Father Suitbert Breiken, O. S. B.

"How different is the Sacred Heart Mission of today from what it was 27 years ago! The wilderness of former years has become a great center of population and activity!" So said Mrs. Lindsay, a former pupil of St. Mary's, when bringing her son John to College, a few days ago.

After a month spent in Oklahoma City, Fr. Gregory is once more in our midst, making great plans for the near future, having received more orders for paintings.

The centenary of our great President Abraham Lincoln did not pass unnoticed at Sacred Heart. The main features of the celebration were a concert by the College band, and a baseball game between Professors and Students, the latter scoring 8 against 2.

On Washington's birth-day, the two senior teams crossed bats with a score of 11 to 12 in favor of the second team.

The students headed by the star spangled banner marched to Georgetown at the sound of patriotic and military airs played by the College band. To the great satisfaction of all participants the Georgetown folks responded in a substantial manner to this display of patriotic enthusiasm.

